Hope in Conflict

EXPLORING CREATIVE APPROACHES TO PEACEMAKING

Saturday 17th November 2018

9.30 registration for 10.00 - 4.15

The Alumni Auditorium, The Forum,
Streatham Campus, University of Exeter,
Stocker Road EX4 4PT

Keynote Speaker - Pádraig Ó Tuama

Leader of the Corrymeela Community

Welcoming those of all faiths and none.

Tickets are available now from bit.ly/2DoLCEl

@HopeinConflictCorrymeela

Enquiries: Tel. Liz 01392 668859

University of Exeter

Celebrating 10 years 2008–2018 Multifaith Chaplaincy

corrymeela

HopeinConflict

Can we find hope in times of conflict – personal, communal, international?

Programme

Rev Simon Taylor, Baptist Chaplain, will chair.

Keynote address by Pádraig, followed by panel discussion.

GROUP DISCUSSIONS

JO BERRY, founder of charity Building Bridges for Peace, whose father died in the Brighton bombing; her dialogue with Pat McGee, sentenced for his part in the bombing, has inspired others to choose a non-violent solution: Finding our own humanity.

JUDE TAYLORSON, acupuncturist, and a student of Vietnamise Zen teacher Thich Nhat Hahn, she was formerly Buddhist Chaplain at the University, and offers an experiential workshop: Peace in oneself, Peace in the World.

LOUISA BURNAND, of the Centre for Peaceful Solutions, who has worked helping prisoners to develop new ways to communicate: From Conflict to Contribution – prisoners making a difference.

JAYME REAVES, a public theologian who will include the religious traditions of hospitality as a means to bring people together.

BROTHER JONATHAN HERBERT & BROTHER HUGH, Anglican Franciscan friars from Hilfield Friary Dorset, on a Franciscan view on peace and reconciliation.

PÁDRAIG will lead a group on Brexit and the Book of Ruth.

THE MULTIFAITH CHAPLAINCY OF EXETER UNIVERSITY: Creative working in a multifaith team. The team is celebrating its 10th anniversary as multifaith and is hosting this event alongside the South West Corrymeela Group.